

6516205062.txt

I believe the FCC should stay as FAR away as possible from regulating a service like XM radio that is PAID for by it's users!! If the National Association of Broadcasters is concerned about XM radio taking it's listeners, broadcasters should offer it's listeners MORE! The FCC has done enough over the past few months to STOMP on free speech, it's time for that government organization to BACK OFF!!
Sincerely,

Dennis Royer